By JOHN H. BYERS.
If the weather is appropriate it is expected that a large crowd will visit Rock River Assembly Sunday. "Pussyfoot" Johnson is the principal attraction. But with John will come the Mt. Morris band, one of the crack bands of northern Illinois and this organization will play a brief concert Sunday afternoon and a full concert Sunday evening.

The Sunday morning sermon will be preached at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. R. E. Golladay, of Columbus, Ohio. Sunday school will be held at the usual hour.

Now, just another word about the program for this evening. The Girls' Quartet of the Pythian Home, Decatur, Ill., will put on a musical program. It is promised that these young people will please. There is not a dull moment in the entire program. Let us give the young women a rousing reception.

Monday's Program.
Don't forget that our own orchestra will give a full program at the Assembly Monday evening. A program by the Dixon Symphony Orchestra always pleases. Doubtless a well filled auditorium will welcome our local people Monday evening.

Monday afternoon Rev. Golladay will again address the Assembly, this time using for his subject, "A Program of Reconstruction." There is much that can be said concerning reconstruction at this time and many will be interested in knowing just what the Ohio divine has to say concerning this all important subject.

The School for Missions will begin Monday forenoon at 10 o'clock and Miss Hill, of New York City, will deliver the principal address.

Assembly Notes.
The showers Friday afternoon were welcomed by all the campers. The park is badly in need of a soaking rain.

Rev. J. F. Seibert received a telegram Friday morning that Mrs. Seibert's brother was dead at his home in Pennsylvania. Rev. Seibert left for the east at noon on Friday.

Mrs. S. B. LaDue is here from Prophetstown visiting at the LaDue camp.

Richard Roth, of Elgin, is a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roth, of Prophetstown, for a few days.

Miss Swanson, of Hoopville, Ill., is a guest at the Richards' camp.
Mrs. L. C. Ryan, who is camping with Mrs. Minnie Anderson, of Sterling, has gone to Sterling for a few days. Mrs. Ryan will be joined by her husband some day next week.

The young ladies of camp "Scare 'Em Inn," enjoyed a chicken supper Thursday evening. Their guests were Forrest Suter, Harold Hulse and William Wikey. The young ladies giving the party were Misses Horace, Frances Clark, Helen White and Jane Perkins. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Mrs. Jas. Osterling and Miss R. M. Osterling, of Norfolk, Va., are here and are guests at the hotel.

Clifton Hatch, of Decatur, arrived here Friday morning accompanied by several of the young women who will give the concert this evening. Mrs. Hatch arrived this morning with the remainder of the young women. Mr. and Mrs. Hatch and their girls are stopping at the Assembly hotel. Mr. Hatch is the superintendent of the Pythian school at Decatur.

Miss Ione Ruth Scott, daughter of former county judge, Robert Scott, will sing a solo at the Assembly Monday evening. Miss Scott is one of Dixon's favorite vocalists and her many friends will be pleased again to have an opportunity to hear her sing. Miss Scott will sing, "Spring Awakening." (Continued on Page Two.)

KABLE BROTHERS COMPANY BAND OF MOUNT MORRIS.

Kable Brothers Company band, which plays a prelude to the lecture at the Assembly Sunday afternoon and provides the entire program for the evening, comes from our neighboring town of Mount Morris.

"Please," said one of the Kable twins who manage the band to the Telegraph reporter, "don't mention the band in a manner that will cause the people to expect too much. This is the first season for Kable Brothers Company band as a concert organization."

for it is that it is a remarkable country band. Our hopes lie in the future. In three years' time we expect to have a band which will justify extravagant announcements, for by that time we shall have realized our ambitions, which is to be one of the best concert bands in the state outside of the professional organizations of Chicago.

A Remarkable Country Band. Nevertheless, Kable Brothers Company is a remarkable musical organization to hail from a small village. The band has a full instrumentation of forty-six pieces, every instrument being new and of the highest grade. Among players are a number of girls and women. There are not many old-time "tooters" in the outfit, the bulk of the members being beginners under Prof. Francis A. Myers, a composer of many standard American pieces of music. The band, however, plays all kinds of standard and classic music. The program for Sunday evening will, of course, be classic and sacred, appropriate to the engagement.

For years Mount Morris has had a good band of some description which gave park concerts in the village on Saturday evenings during the summer months. Music lovers for miles around swarm to these Saturday night concerts at Mount Morris. The college campus which immediately adjoins the business section affords a splendid place for these concerts.

This year Kable Brothers Company assumed charge of the band and proceeded to do everything in its power to develop it into a high-class musical organization. New instruments and uniforms were purchased and the noted composer, Prof. Francis A. Myers, was secured to direct it. No expense is being spared to bring it up to the standard desired by the company and the community. Professor Myers is succeeding admirably.

Kable Brothers Company, by the way, is a publishing concern which has grown up in Mount Morris during the past twenty years, from a country newspaper to a corporation capitalized at a quarter of a million dollars. Every evening this publishing house dumps into the mail about eight tons of printed matter. It employs about two hundred people and its payroll amounts to about $5,000 a week. It is quite an institution for a village of 1,400 population.

TROOPS QUELL DISTURBANCES, MAINTAIN ORDER

More Militiamen Rushed to Denver and West Frankfort

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Denver, Colo., Aug. 7.—Denver is quiet today following a night of rioting in which three persons were killed and a dozen wounded in a clash between sympathizers of striking street car workers and strikers.

Two hundred soldiers under Colonel C. C. Ballou arrived early today to maintain order just as leaders of the tramway men's union voted to recommend calling off the street car men's strike which has been followed by two days of violence resulting in the deaths of three men and the wounding of a dozen persons last night. The tramway men were to meet at 9 o'clock this morning to take a vote on the recommendation of their executive committee. Governor Shoup in a statement at Colorado Springs said the action of the Union leaders would not halt the arrival of troops. Five hundred more soldiers were under orders at Camp Funston to leave early today.

Colonel Ballou today ordered all strike breakers disarmed. Troopers were to ride on the top of each car leaving the barns.

Will Take Men Back

Frederick W. Hill, general manager of the tramway company announced that the striking carmen would be taken back but that there would be no working agreement with the union and the union would not be recognized. The statement declared that preference in filling vacancies would be given to strike breakers. The call for troops was issued last night when a mob attacked the East Denver car barns and was repelled with rifle fire. Three men were killed and a dozen persons including women, girls and boys were wounded. The leader of the strike-breakers at the East Denver car barns declared the shooting there was caused by attacks of the mob on an automobile load of strike breakers who were arriving at the barns. Hundreds of persons in the neighborhood were attracted by the firing and four children, two girls and two boys, and a woman, were among those struck by bullets.

The rioting last night brought the casualties resulting from the strike disturbances to five dead and fifty known injured. Heavy property loss to the tramway company and the Denver Post also resulted.

Minimize Results West Frankfort Riot

By Associated Press Leased Wire
West Frankfort, Ill., Aug. 7.—(Via Johnson city)—Militiamen continued to patrol the streets of West Frankfort today, but there were no indications of a recurrence of Thursday's night's rioting. City and county officials agreed that the trouble apparently had passed over.

Efforts of National Guard officers to learn the identity of five persons reported to have been killed in the rioting, were unavailing. This led the officers to express the belief that none were killed.

Mayor Lon Fox and Sheriff Robert H. Watkins, likewise, said they did not believe any deaths resulted from Thursday's night's lawlessness. The property damage caused by the outbreak will not exceed $75,000, they asserted.

Chicago Heights' Disorder Not Serious

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Aug. 7.—The seriousness of the reported rioting at Chicago Heights yesterday was minimized today by Chief of Police Thomas Stone. He said that there had been minor clashes and street fights occurring for the last two years, and characterized yesterday's affairs as mostly a matter of property damage. He said that the rioting was not serious because of known dissatisfaction among the foreign elements of the heights on account of the presence of numbers of negro residents in the Italian and Hungarian districts.

Nebraska Divine at St. Paul's Tomorrow

Rev. C. H. Lewis of Nebraska, one of the interesting and instructive lecturers at the Assembly during the morning hours will preach at St. Paul's Lutheran church at 10:30 o'clock, and members of the congregation are asked to note the change in the hour of the service. On account of the assembly which was given, will begin fifteen minutes earlier tomorrow and next Sunday. Sunday school will convene at the regular time, 9:45 a. m.

REDS, CHECKED IN POLAND, NOW THREATEN CAPITAL OF PERSIA IN NEAR EAST DRIVE

American Consul Gets Permission to Remove
U. S. Legation

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Aug. 7.—Military experts and officials here today turned their attention somewhat from the situation in Poland to study the Bolshevik drive into southwestern Asia. With the Persian capital of Teheran threatened by the Soviet army, the situation in that quarter was considered fraught with possibilities. The Bolsheviks, it is believed, by some officials and diplomats here are making an effort to upset British and French rule in the Near East.

John L. Caldwell, American minister to Persia, who notified the state department that the Persians were preparing to evacuate Teheran, has been granted permission to remove the American legation from that city. The American consul at Tabriz also has been authorized to move.

Advancing Russians Checked by Pole Army

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, Aug. 7.—Russian Bolshevik armies hammering the Polish lines northeast and east of Warsaw seem to have encountered stern resistance. With the exception of the area around Brest-Litovsk, east of the Polish capital, now new advances by soviet troops have been reported and even there they have been limited by the desperate fighting of the Poles. Polish forces have been forced to retire from Terespol, about four miles west of Brest-Litovsk and have lost Muranow about five miles to the south. Thus the Bolsheviks have gained a foothold on the west bank of the Bug river in this region, but it is probable their further progress will be very slow, as permanent forts must be stormed if the Soviet legions are to gain ground there.

Northwest of Brest-Litovsk, along the Bug river, the Poles have launched vigorous counter-attacks and have driven back across the river detachments on the left bank of the stream. Further north along the battle front a great battle is being fought but no details of the outcome have been given in late dispatches.

Premiers Will Meet to Discuss Pole Crisis

Paris, Aug. 7.—Premier Millerand will leave at 7:30 o'clock tonight for Hythe, Eng., where he will confer with Premier Lloyd George relative to the Polish situation. Marshal Foch will accompany him. Military aid for Poland, consisting

UTILITIES CO. ASKS PAY FOR ALL EXTENSIONS

Petition Asking Suspension of Rule Has Been Filed

(Special to the Evening Telegraph)
Springfield, Ill., Aug. 7.—The Illinois Northern Utilities company of Dixon filed a petition with the state public utilities commission today asking that rules 19 and 31 of general order number 20 of the commission, which required the company to make free gas and electric extensions to new customers be suspended.

General Manager E. D. Alexander this morning explained the petition as filed by the Utilities company. The commission has been asked to resuspend the extension of gas and electric service of all companies in the state until such a time as materials used become less expensive.

The petition asks for an extension of a ruling which has been effective for some time. In cases where extensions are made, the consumer is required to stand the expense of such extension instead of the utility company as before the war.

Miss Sullivan Fell and Broke Right Arm

Miss Katherine Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sullivan suffered a compound fracture of the right forearm last evening about 8 o'clock at the Assembly park. The young lady stumbled and fell, alighting in such a manner as to throw her right arm over the right hand. Both bones above the wrist were fractured. She was taken to the hospital where the fracture was reduced.

Mrs. Kenneth Burgess is quite ill at a Madison hospital. Her mother, Mrs. C. A. Todd has been to Madison to see her a number of times.

of one or two divisions each from France, Great Britain, Hungary, Rumania, Latvia and possibly other nations is one of the emergency measures to be discussed by the two premiers.

This plan as well as other measures has been recommended by the French and British missions at Warsaw. It has been pointed out that Hungary, particularly, can send good cavalry into the field.

The Warsaw military experts in Warsaw reported the military situation unchanged.

The Polish delegates empowered to negotiate peace were expected to reach Minsk tonight, it was stated.

Crabtree and sentenced to serve indeterminate sentences in the state school for boys at St. Charles. DAYTON CELEBRATES NOTIFICATION FETE FOR GOV. JAMES COX

Democratic Nominee Told
He is "It" This Afternoon

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Dayton, Aug. 7.—National democracy today took up the battle gauge with its republican opponents for America's greatest political prize, the presidency.

With today's formal notification and acceptance by Governor James M. Cox of the Democratic presidential nomination, the national campaign was on between the two dominant parties, except only for similar ceremonies next Monday at Hyde Park N. Y. for Franklin D. Roosevelt Democratic vice presidential nominee.

All states, territories and possessions were represented in the days program which culminated in Governor Cox's address of acceptance stating the Democratic cause.

Holiday in Dayton
Dayton gave itself over to this, its first presidential notification. A half holiday was in force for the ceremonies this afternoon at the about a mile from the center of the city.

Like city buildings and homes, the fair grounds were bright with flags, bunting and banners, with gilt standards and evergreen. At the fair grounds, seats for about 4,000 were provided in the flag decked amphitheatre and special auxiliary grandstands. The brown dirt race track and oval enclosure, together with grassy paddock plots at each end of the amphitheatre, were set aside for the crowd which gathered here today.

Marching Delegations
Marching delegations swept thru the streets with blaring bands, long before the hour, 1 o'clock, set for the formal parade to the fair grounds.

The formal program at the fair grounds was brief except for the acceptance address of Governor Cox which was released for publication throughout the country at 11 o'clock local time, everywhere, and the notification speech of Senator Robinson of Arkansas, heading the notification committee by virtue of his chairman ship at San Francisco.

Prior to the fairgrounds ceremony, the Governor and Mrs. Cox had as guests at a noon buffet luncheon at Traill's End the members of the notification and national committee and other prominent leaders.

Mr. Roosevelt, his wife and daughter and Chairman White of the National committee were among the Governor's house guests for the notification period.

DAUGHTER BORN.

A daughter was born Tuesday, Aug. 3, at the Dixon Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith. Mother and child are both doing nicely.

Mrs. Andy Ackert is visiting friends in Wausong.

COX COMES OUT FIRMLY FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS AS PREPARED BY WILSON

BULLETIN

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Dayton, Aug. 7.—Governor Cox abandoned his plan to have an insert to his address. He announced today that there would be no insert and that the speech as sent in advance to the press would stand.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Dayton, O., Aug. 7.—Peace for America and the world by this nation's entrance into the League of Nations with "interpretations" not distributing its vital principle was pronounced today by Gov. James M. Cox, the democratic presidential standard bearer, as his paramount policy.

In his address here accepting the democratic nomination, Gov. Cox declared, "whether we shall or shall not join in this practical and humane movement. President Wilson entered the League in our name. Senator Harding, as the republican candidate for the presidency proposes in plain words that we remain out of it. As the democratic candidate I favor going in."

League or no League, the democratic nominee declared, is the issue between the two parties—"the supreme issue of the century," he said.

"The question is," Gov. Cox declared, "whether we shall or shall not join in this practical and humane movement. President Wilson entered the League in our name. Senator Harding, as the republican candidate for the presidency proposes in plain words that we remain out of it. As the democratic candidate I favor going in."

Predicts League Victory.

"The first duty of the new administration will be ratification of the treaty," Gov. Cox said, predicting that friends of the League would rally to elect a Senate with the requisite majority for ratification.

Gov. Cox said the "interpretations" should state "our interpretation of the covenant as a matter of good faith to our associates and as a precaution against any misunderstanding in the future." Assailing the League reservation as emasculating, Gov. Cox suggested two specific "interpretations," as outlined several months ago in a newspaper article. One declared America's continuance in the League should depend upon the League's use only as an agency for world peace; the other stated the understanding that this nation could act only within the Constitution, declared unalterable by any treaty.

The door to other "interpretations" was left open by Gov. Cox, but he said that the democratic platform plank "speaks in a firm resolution against anything that disturbs the vital principle" of the League.

No room for doubt was left as to the Governor's position on the League as the pre-eminent political battleground. As on other subjects, he stated his position squarely.

No Time For Wobbling.

"We are in a time when calls for straight thinking, straight talking and straight acting," he said, "It is no time for wobbling."

In position, the League question led the candidate's address and to it he devoted three thousand words of the 10,000-odd total.

The prohibition amendment and Volstead Law were not specified in the address, but Gov. Cox promised emphatically strict law enforcement. "The Constitution," he said, "is the license and limitation given to and placed upon the lawmaking body. The legislative branch of government is subjected to the rule of the majority. The public official who fails to enforce the law is an enemy both to the Constitution and to the American principle of majority rule. It would seem unnecessary for any candidate for the presidency to say that he does not intend to violate his oath of office. Anyone who is false to that oath is more unworthy than the law violator himself."

"Morals cannot easily be produced by statute," Gov. Cox continued in passing to a plea against abuse of the writ of injunction.

Regarding woman suffrage, Gov. Cox urged ratification of the proposed Constitutional amendment, declaring women "are entitled to the privilege of voting as a matter of right, and because they will be helpful in maintaining wholesome and patriotic policy."

Flays His Opposition.

His opposition—candidate, platform, leaders and congressional record—were flayed by Gov. Cox in scathing terms throughout his long address. A "Senatorial oligarchy" led by Senators Lodge, Penrose and Snoot, Gov. Cox charged, selected Sen. Harding to head the republicans and fastened "into the party platform the creed of bitterness and hate and the vacillating policy that possesses it."

The republican stand, generally, was scored by the Governor as reactionary and, on the League question, he said the party's candidate was bent to the irreconcilable hostility of Sen. Johnson of California. The republican Congress, the Governor asserted, failed to pass a constructive law or to reduce war taxes.

Millions in campaign funds have been gathered for "the reactionary cause," the Governor charged, depicting election of a new administration "under corrupt auspices" and demanding publicity for "the plain truth" regarding all contributions and disbursements. The democrats, he added, would not attempt "to compete by dollars." He warned the country against "cunning devices backed by unlimited prodigal expenditures—to confuse and lure."

Says He's a Free Man.

Gov. Cox said he took up the democratic standard "a free man, unfettered by promises."

"We want a change," he said, "from the old world of yesterday (Continued on Page 2)

Today's Market Report

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Weekly Grain Review.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Wildness of price changes this week on the board of trade have rarely been equaled during any like period. Fluctuations depended on the varying prospects for a new general war outbreak in Europe. Compared with a week ago, wheat this morning was 12½ cents to 13½ cents higher, corn up 3½, and oats at an advance of 2½ to 4½. Pork and ribs were down 45 cents to 1.35, but lard showed gains of 17c to 20c.

For the first time since trading was resumed in future delivery of wheat, speculative dealings broadened out, and despite heavy margins lively purchasing often developed based on the chance that war emergency might bring about demand from Europe for food supplies.

On one occasion within a single hour, prices shot skyward 15 cents a bushel, but excited selling next day led to a smash just as sudden, followed by complete recovery before night and by continued exchange, was largely responsible for such setbacks as did result from news favorable to peace.

Corn and oats like wheat, reflected the war outlook, but drought developments were also eagerly watched. European buying strengthened lard and pork and ribs, however, lacked support.

Chicago Livestock

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Cattle receipts, 1,500; market, compared with week ago strictly choice handy weight steers and best yearlings strong; choice heavy beefs, slow; common medium and good steers 25 cents to 50 cents lower; weighty cows and best heifers 50 cents higher; medium and common kinds steady to higher; bologna hogs 25 to 60 cents higher; others steady to 25 cents higher; veal calves $1 to 1.50 lower; good stockers 50 cents lower, undesirable kinds 50 to 75 cents lower.

Hogs—receipts 2,000; light and light butchers steady with yesterday's average; others mostly 10 to 15c higher; top 16.30; bulk light and butcher hogs 15.85 to 16.25; bulk packing hogs 12.90 to 14.25; pigs steady to 15 cents higher; bulk desirable kinds 14.90 to 15.40.

Sheep—receipts 4,000; market steady; receipts direct compared with week ago; western fat feeding lambs 75 to $1 lower; native lambs 25 cents to 50 cents lower; fat mostly steady; breeding ewes strong to 25 cents higher.

Chicago Cash Grain

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Aug. 7.—Unexpected rains in Illinois and other states overnight caused a sharp break in wheat prices at the opening of the market today. At the close, initial quotations were 4½ to 5½ cents with December 2.31 to 2.32 and March 2.22. There was little rallying power displayed, prices for a time hovering about the opening figures.

COX DECLARES FOR LEAGUE IN ADDRESS OF ACCEPTANCE TODAY

where international intrigue made people mere pawns on the chessboard of war. We want a change from the old industrial world where the man who toiled was assured of a "full dinner pail," as his only lot and portion. We stand at the forks of the road. One leads to higher citizenship, a freer expression of the individual and a fuller life for all. The other leads to reaction, the rule of the few over the many and the restriction of the average man's chances to grow upward. But I have abiding faith that the pitfalls will be avoided and the right road chosen.

"The leaders opposed to democracy promise to put the country back to normal." This can only mean the so-called normal of former reactionary administration.

"Our view is toward the sunrise of tomorrow. The opposition stands in the skyline of the setting sun, looking backward, at the old days of reaction."

Tribute to Wilson.

A graceful tribute to President Wilson was paid by Gov. Cox when, according to the republican platform for advancement of "line the breathes of pride" in the nation's war achievements, he said that while soldiers fell in the trenches Mr. Wilson "was broken in the enormous labor of his office."

The republican proposal for a separate peace, Gov. Cox declared, would be "the most disheartening event in civilization since the Russians made their separate peace with Germany."

Citing difficulties in the plan, Gov. Cox said that if accomplished "no nation in good standing would have anything to do with either of us." "This plan would not only be a piece of bungling diplomacy, but plain, unadorned dishonesty, as well," he said inveighing against any schism out associated powers.

"This act would either be regarded as an act of madness or attempted international bossism," he added.

Discussing domestic questions, Gov. Cox denounced profiteering at length and promised that profiteers should "suffer the penalty of the criminal law."

Capital and Labor.

Fair returns for both capital and labor were advocated, the nominee also approving development of both "into large units—without injury to the public interest." Collective bargaining by labor through its own representatives was approved by the Governor, who added:

"We should not by law abridge a man's right either to labor or quit his employment. However, neither labor nor capital should—take action that would put in jeopardy the public welfare."

"We need a definite and precise statement of policy as to what business men and workmen may do by way of combination and collective action. The law is now so nebulous that it almost turns upon the predilections of the judge or jury. The rules of business should be made more certain so that on a stable basis men may move in confidence."

Disputes between capital and labor are inevitable, Gov. Cox said, and public opinion settles prolonged strikes. Declaring that "public opinion should determine in America," he said the government should occupy an impartial position protect lives and property and, possibly at times, inquire into fact of a tie-up.

"But facts and not conclusions," he said, "should be submitted."

Agricultural subjects formed another extensive feature of the candidate's speech, many expedients for agricultural development being advocated, including reduction of tenantry, increased production, co-operative selling as well as purchasing by farmers, establishment of municipal markets and "modern state rural school codes" and increased acreage by irrigation development. He also declared for government regulation of cold storage and a time limit on storage products.

Advocating more home owners, Gov. Cox said that under democratic rule "the prosperity of the country had been widely diffused."

Praising American youth for its war service, Gov. Cox declared that the nation owes a debt to those who died and their dependents and to the wounded, who should be trained and rehabilitated. Also, he said, "we must realize that considerable compensation is due those who lost much by the break in their material hopes and aspirations."

Mexican Situation.

The Mexican situation, the Governor stated, has been trying our patience for years, but now begins to show signs of improvement.

"Not the least of the things that have contributed to it," he continued, "is a realization by the people of that country that we have neither lust for their domain, nor disposition to disturb their sovereign rights."

On the railroad question, Gov. Cox advocated giving "a thorough test to private ownership" under government regulation, the latter now being accepted, he said. Financial credit for the roads, he stated, should be provided. Discrediting of government operation of the carriers was deplored as "unfair" and "insincere."

For Tax Reduction.

A pledge for "heavy" and immediate reduction of federal taxation was made by the nominee, who said that, with economy, $2,000,000,000 could be lopped off. He advocated repeal of "annoying consumption taxes" and said incomes of wages earners, agricultural producers and salaried professionals and small business men should be "sharply modified." He suggested, in lieu of excess profits taxes, "a small tax, probably of one or 1½ per cent on the total business of every going concern." He also urged "making the holders of hidden wealth pay their share (of taxes) with those whose property is in sight."

Advocating reform of federal agencies and activities, including establishment of a budget system, the Governor said the government could be run on $4,000,000,000 annually including sinking fund and national debt interest. Disarmament provisions of the League of Nations, he added, constitute "an appealing fundamental" and its loss a surety of armament burdens.

The Federal Reserve Act was commended at length as the greatest factor in America's war efforts next to personal sacrifices of the people. The law is a democratic achievement, he said enacted "against the protests of bitter republican stand-patters." In its development he recommended establishing foreign banks in trade centers and urged Americans to guard the law, declaring it should be "kept from the hands of those who have never been its friends."

Repeal of war laws restricting freedom of speech and assembly and liberty of the press was advocated, together with Americanization of alien residents and extension of education work "without encroachment by the federal government on local control."

Conservation of children by prevention of child labor, adequate pay for government employees, short shift for anarchistic agitators and development of waterway transportation were other affirmative policies the Governor enunciated.

"I accept the nomination of our party," he said in conclusion, "obedient to the Divine Sovereign of all peoples, and hopeful that by trust in Him the way will be shown for helpful service."

JOHNSON DRY WORKER MT. MORRIS BAND AT ASSEMBLY TOMORROW

ing" by Sanderson.

Playing "horseshoes" is about the most popular game among the Assembly Campers. Dr. Long, of Chicago, and Attorney Waite, of Prophetstown, are believed to be the champions. It is to be regretted that Dr. Long will soon leave the Assembly, but then Waite declares he will have about everything his own way. But, "Farmer" Brown, of Prophetstown, has played a game or two and he is showing some strength. Brown has the arm and before many days he will be throwing his shoes in great manner. He is already a hard thrower. Dr. Harris, of Sterling, is also showing considerable improvement. The number of fans is increasing daily.

Rev. Carl Sunberg has been called to Doula, Iowa, to preach the funeral sermon of a friend. He will return to the Assembly next Thursday.

Miss Anna Ruth Guss, of Omaha, Neb., a niece of Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Walter, is here for an extended visit at the Lutheran parsonage.

Rev. T. B. Hersch, of Springfield, O., superintendent of Missions of the Miami Synod, has gone to Chicago for a few days.

H. P. Stearns, manual training instructor in the Dixon High schools, played a cornet solo Friday afternoon before the lecture of Dr. S. P. Long. Mr. Stearns is a master of the cornet and his solo pleased his auditors. He responded to two encores. Prof. Stoddard was his accompanist.

Long Lecture, Friday P. M.

"Lessons from the War" was the subject of a lecture delivered by Dr. S. P. Long, Friday afternoon. Dr. Long caused some of his listeners to gasp at some of the things he said in his plain, frank, strike-from-the-shoulder talk.

"The Ohio divine spared no man," he took a rap at those who raised money to purchase cigarettes for the boys in the army. He took another shot at national preparedness, in so much as it helped to get a country into war rather than a means to keep a country out of war. He declared that preparedness leads to victory and from victory to victory and then to ultimate defeat. He used Germany to prove his assertion.

He declared that the war emphasized the fact that infidelity is the damnable sin.

He declared that the war will and has made the Bible better known. He declared that back of Germany's preparedness was the one fact that England controlled the finances of Spain, Holland, France and many of the other countries. This Germany desired to break up and shatter.

He declared that war emphasized the power of propaganda.

He declared that the war proved that alcohol is not a beverage.

He declared that there must be a divine democracy, and said that when people say that Lincoln said that this is a government of the people, by the people and for the people, they lie, "Lincoln did not say that in that manner," said Dr. Long. "What Lincoln did say," declared Dr. Long, was "Under God, this is a country of the people, by the people and for the people."

He declared that if we are ever going to win now we must stick together.

"These are some of the conspicuous lessons from the war," said Dr. Long, and now I will just give some of the concealed lessons from the war."

1.—The curse of the money power.

2.—Cost of the war.

3.—Effect of war upon the church.

4.—What is God's plan concerning the war.

This question he asked his hearers.

To Deliver Address

JOHN H. BYERS

Well known Lee County man will deliver the principal address at the Old Soldiers & Sailors Reunion at Franklin Grove next Wednesday.

In the course of his lecture, "Where is Wilson's place in History?" "I shall not answer that, my friends, I will leave the question for you to answer," said the speaker.

In closing his very interesting lecture Dr. Long declared that we should live the life of love in the home, in the state and in the Nation. "What greater tribute can a wife and children pay the husband as he lies in his casket, as they stand by that casket looking for the last time at the features and face of husband and father, than to exclaim, 'He loved us.'"

For thirty minutes before the lecture of Father John the Girls' Quartet from the Pythian Home at Decatur furnished a very pleasing and delightful program of music. The girls responded to several encores. Miss Hogan of the Conservatory of Music at Decatur played the accompanist and proved herself very proficient.

Father John Palubicki, of Fullerton, Neb., appeared at the Assembly at 8 o'clock last night and held his large audience spellbound for one hour with his eloquence. Father John discussed some of the reasons for so much unrest in this country and every other country of the world. He attributes the most of the present unrest to a lack of love between nations; and other reason for such unrest is our contempt for law and order. "A nation will last so long as man have faith in courts and laws," declared the speaker.

He paid motherhood a beautiful tribute in the closing of his lecture. "I believe," declared Father John, "that the mothers of America had as much to do with winning the war as any other factor."

He also took a rap at class legislation and this one thing was an important factor in causing unrest in this country.

Father John is a power on the platform. His appeal touches the heart. He is a finished orator, and his ringing words conveyed a message to his hearers which will not soon be forgotten.

SEALS INCREASE UNDER CUSTODY OF U. S. GOVT.

Annual Census Expected to Show 600,000 of Them

Washington.—The annual census of the seals, now being taken by the Bureau of Fisheries is expected to show about 600,000 of the animals, or three times as many as when the government undertook the custody of them a half score years ago.

Although the seal spends much of its life at sea, its habits make the census-taking comparatively easy. Mr. Smith, commissioner of the Bureau of Fisheries, explains the "count of noses" is of importance to prevent "blind killing" of the animals for their furs, possibly resulting in their extinction.

Under present government control, Mr. Smith asserts that the seals are increasing about 10 of 12 per cent of their number annually. Last year's count showed 550,000 of which 26,000 were killed for their pelts.

In the middle of Bearing sea, lying 40 miles apart, are two islands—St. George and St. Paul—the only land to which the seals ever resort. Every spring they visit the island to raise their young, leaving in the fall to winter in the north Pacific and it is during the summer that the census is taken.

The killing of the animals is also done in the summer, this under law being confined to the surplus males. Last year of labor resulted in 10,000 fewer animals being killed than government officials had planned. Japan and Great Britain, along with the United States, share the revenue produced from the seal-kill, a treaty giving this country seventy per cent of the animals, with the other two countries each receiving 15 per cent.

"In the old days," says Mr. Smith, "when 100,000 seals were killed annually the government obtained $10 per skin, while now we are getting $140, which nets us about $120 per skin. Increase in the value of furs and the different method of conducting the business explains this."

Besides the scale of pelts, the government is operating a fertilizer plant on the island for disposing of the carcasses, from which there also is extracted an oil used for dressing tops of automobiles.

THE SILVER LINING

Every dark cloud, so 'tis said, has a silver lining. Turning the housing-shortage cloud inside out displays the brighter side of it. It is true that rents are going up, up, up; families
are being turned out into the streets;
the man with three or four children is
as welcome by the average landlord as if he had the smallpox; and, in general, everybody is suffering because there are not enough houses to go around.

But when the secretary of agriculture reports that the country has already suffered a reduction of 12 per cent in hired labor on the farms as compared with a year ago, and that the amount of hired labor is only 72
per cent of what it was before the war
the silver lining of the city housing shortage begins to be faintly visible.

What would happen if there were plenty of vacant houses in the cities?
The rush of farmer boys to what they think are high wages and easier
conditions in the cities and towns
would be overwhelming. The very fact that the farmers, farm boys and hired men know that there is no place to live in the city has undoubtedly kept
much labor on the farms that otherwise would have "gone to the city."

House shortage is certainly a serious
evil. House plenty right now might be a more serious one, for every man who leaves the farm at this critical time in the world's history
cuts down the potential supply of food that must feed everybody.

GREED RUN WILD

Retail sugar prices in many cities
have passed the 30-cent mark. In others sugar is almost unobtainable.
There is talk of 50-cent sugar ahead.

The sugar profiteers are preparing for their "annual canning season raid." Senator Capper declared on the floor of the Senate.

"For years the sugar interests have openly and shamelessly robbed American housewives during the canning
season," he charged. "They have,
with their exorbitant charges, regularly blighted the poor families' hope of putting up and storing away a cheap and wholesome supply of fruits and vegetables. . . . It is piracy
so colossal and criminal that Captain Kidd and all the famous pirates of history become Sunday school characters by comparison."

At the same time that prices are
soaring and these charges being made,
the Foreign Trade Record, issued by the National City Bank of New York,
declares:

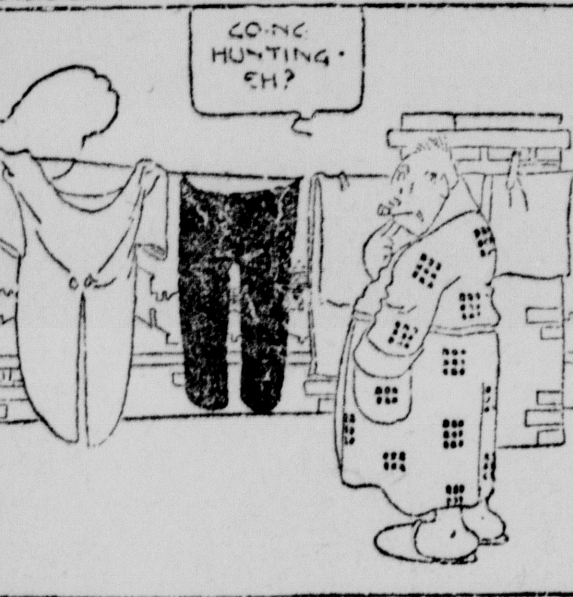

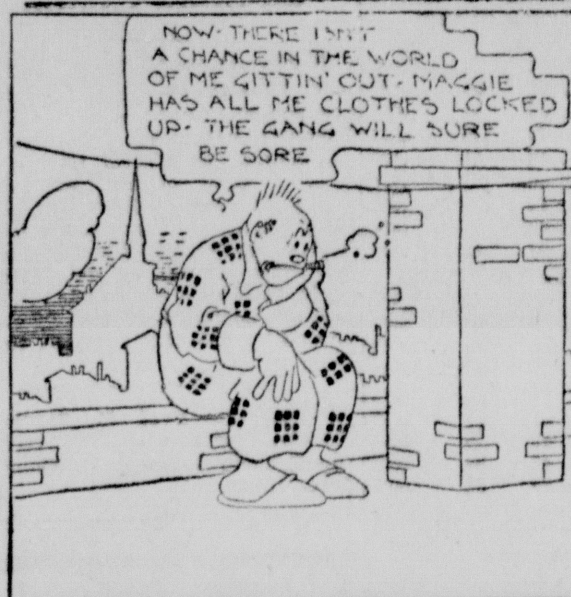

"With sugar prices the 'highest ever,'
the quantity being brought into the United States is the 'biggest ever.'
Official figures of the movements of sugar into the United States, including that from its own islands, indicate that the quantity entering the country in the fiscal year of 1920,
which ends with June, will apparently approximate 9,000,000,000 pounds,
as against 7,750,000,000 in the former high record year—the fiscal year of 1919."

Facts such as these show that the sugar situation, as it exists today, is perhaps the greatest single example
of profiteering in history.

THE BLIND SPOT

Close your left eye and keep the right fixed upon a mark on a printed page while you move the colored
end of a match slowly across the page. You will find a spot about three inches to the right of the mark you
are gazing at, and a little below it,

BRINGING UP FATHER.

8-7 © 1920 BY INFL. FEATURE SERVICE, INC.

where the match end disappears. It is opposite the "blind spot."

There is a such a spot in every eye,
where the nerve trunk comes in from behind and takes the place in the retina
that is covered everywhere else
with sensitive nerve-endings.

Ordinarily one does not notice his blind spot, partly because both eyes
are not blind on the same side and one sees what the other misses; partly because it takes an effort to keep one's eye from turning to the thing that he is attending to.

But why the colored match? Try the experiment again without it, and notice how the blind spot seems to see the page. It does not see black, and it does not see emptiness. It really does not see at all. But the person knows that the page is there and he simply takes for granted that the part
that he does not see is like the rest
that he does.

That is a rule that people go by all through life. And on the whole, it works, though one must learn to expect occasional exceptions.

HOW SMALL?

How big is the universe?
Scientists can't agree. Whether there is one great universe, perhaps ten times as large as is commonly believed, or whether there are a million
"universes," of which that to which the earth belongs is only one, was discussed by the savants at the annual meeting of the National Academy of Sciences.

Dr. Heber D. Curtis defended the idea that the Milky Way contains practically all the stars. He said
such a universe is relatively small.
His idea of smallness is 30,000 light
years in diameter, and not more than 3000 light years in thickness. A light
year, he remembered, is the distance light travels in a year. And travels 186,000 miles a second!

If this is "smallness" what is vastness?

Dr. Harlow Shapley believes in the theory of a galaxy of stars ten or more times larger than the Milky Way. Beyond this, he thinks, there are undoubtedly innumerable other universes, the only traces of which appear as dim star clusters through the telescope.

Which is right? It does not matter.

In either case, the earth is but a tiny speck—an infinitesimal pinpoint
of matter whirling through space—
whatever "space" is.

And the human animal is but a speck of earth dust, animated for a tiny fraction of time by that marvelous thing called "life."

Compared to that vastness called
the universe, man, who thinks himself
and his individual affairs so important is as a fleeting fraction of a second in millions of years of time.

It might be well for humanity, engaged in its puny strivings, fighting,
struggling, tearing down, building up,
pulling loose, and binding down—
with the idea that its efforts constitutes the whole of life—if it would look up sometimes to the stars and remember how vast are the vastnesses
of the universe, and how small and insignificant are the victories and defeats encompassed in the span of a human life.

HIS DAY NUMBERED

The day of the rent profiteer is numbered.

New York state has limited by law
the rental which may be charged for houses and apartments, specifying that the rent in any one year shall not be more than 25 per cent greater than for the preceding year. It has given the courts much greater powers
also protect tenants against profiteering landlords.

Now comes the State Rent Commission of Wisconsin, and in a report just submitted to Gov. Philip recommends that the legislature be called in session at once to enact a law limiting to 25 per cent the gross profit and 10 per cent the net profit
that any landlord shall charge a tenant in Wisconsin. The commission cites the usury laws as a precedent
for this legislation, and, after scathing
ly denouncing the rent robbers, who have, in some instances, increased rentals 100 per cent and more in Milwaukee, it says that the same justifi-

MR. TINGALING GETS MAD

"Well," said Tingaling sternly to Scramble Squirrel who was stuck
fast in his house. "This is a pretty kettle of fish."

"Don't you mean?" corrected Scramble sadly, "this is a pretty holeful of squirrel?"

"I mean what I mean," insisted the fairman landlord. "But it looks as though someone else was stuck beside yourself, for if you're stuck in your house, I'm stuck for the rent."

he confessed.

"Well, I'd be ashamed," declared
Tingaling, loftily, snapping his book shut with a bang, while Nick and Nancy closed up the big pocket-book
which they had opened to put the squirrel's money into.

"I am!" said Scramble meekly.
Just then a voice overhead called
"Hello, folks!" Tingaling recognized the voice at once as Oliver Oriole's
the tailor, and blushed furiously.

"How does your suit feel since I begging your pardon for strong language, Mrs. Squirrel.

"Where is the rent money?" the fairman went on. "I must have it right away."

"In my pocket said Scramble still sadly.

"Praises be!" cried Tingaling happily. "Such luck! Just hand it right out, Mr. Squirrel, and I'll mark you paid in my big rent-book."

But Scramble only looked more sad
than ever, sheepish too. "I'm so fat and my clothes are so tight, I can't get my hand into my pocket."

let it out for you, Mr. Tingaling?"
called Oliver. "You'll have to stop eating so much, for if you get any fatter I can't put in any more Gus-sets for you!" And he flew away laughing.

Oliver wasn't the only one who was laughing now. Nancy and Nick and Mrs. Squirrel, too were shaking their sides. The joke was on poor Tingaling, who looked cross enough to eat
somebody.

Without another word he stuck his pencil behind his ear and slid down
the tree.

Treatment of Shock

Shock is a condition resulting from a severe impression made upon the nervous and circulatory systems
either by a physical injury or a mental disturbance. The majority of cases dealt with are the result of extensive burns or other grave injuries, such as gunshot wounds and railway accidents. Electric shock is also common. Severe shock may be produced by fright alone.

As an illustration of the treatment,
it may be supposed that a man has been injured in a railway accident and
is found in a condition of shock.
Those who attend the case should at once loosen the clothing and make a rapid but careful examination to ascertain if hemorrhage exists or if
some condition is present which calls for immediate action. If for any reason it becomes necessary to move
the patient, his head should be kept as low as possible and the body to favor the flow of blood towards the brain.

If possible, four persons should arrange to carry the patient to insure greater protection. If the examination indicates that a bone has probably been broken, a temporary splint should be used to prevent movement of the fragments of the bones during transportation. Arriving at the place selected, the clothing
should be quickly and carefully removed or cut away if necessary to avoid delay. Then the patient should be placed in a warm bed if available,
his head being kept low, blocks of wood under the foot of the bed will accomplish this.

The treatment now consists in applying warmth to the surface of the body and in carefully administering
some form of internal stimulation.
The first indication can be met by surrounding the patient with hot water bottles, or hot bricks, stone,
etc., about the arms and legs, thighs
and body, but not about the head, for
when reaction occurs, this added heat
may favor a congestion of the brain.
It must be remembered that the sensibility of the patient is blunted and these articles may burn without the patient knowing it; therefore they should be carefully watched. A hot plate wrapped in a towel may be placed over the heart, when and when vomiting occurs, a mustard plaster
may be applied for a short time over the stomach. Although friction may disturb the patient, it can be resorted to when heat cannot be supplied as indicated above.

ANSWERED.

Q. I am a young woman who has been troubled ever since I can remember with a horse and disagreeable voice. Other members of my family have good voices. A throat specialist examined my throat and found the vocal chords in good condition. I am quite nervous. Have you heard of any similar cases caused by nervousness? Do you think it can be cured after such a long time? If so, how?

"M. M."

A. It is very doubtful whether there is any form of treatment which would change the character of your voice.
If a throat specialist has found the vocal chords in good condition, I believe it would be a mistake to undertake any form of treatment. It might not only make matters worse, but cause some serious trouble.

Q. Can a woman have a baby with syphilis and not have it herself?
A. It is not possible for a woman to have a syphilitic child without being infected with syphilis herself.

Such is Life

Somebody has truthfully said that it takes a lot of people to make up a world. Well, in the same breath, it takes a lot of faces to make up a lot of people, doesn't it?

Pay your fare and enter any ill' old average street car and join in on a slant at the flock of faces that it makes a lot of people of the interior.

Sitting right near the conductor you will notice an elderly lady who looks seared to death. Know what's the matter with her? She is a stranger in town and is going to spring a surprise visit upon her son-in-law. She has just asked the conny to call a certain street and she feels certain he is going to forget all about it. (And think what a mean trick that would be on son-in-law.)

Down at the end of the car! Look at the fellow who has an "I hate the world" expression on his man. But you've got him all wrong. He's simply got a boil on the back of his neck.
And it hurts!

The youngster whose eyes are a bit
red and whose mouth hangs toward
the ground isn't ordinarily of a disagreeable disposition. His mother is taking him to the dentist.

And lookit the heavyset fellow. His face is beaming all over with red. His mouth hangs open. But it isn't his natural expression or looks. He just ran a block to catch the car.

That slender young lady, all smiles,
has just received a love letter. She's tickled pink.

Notice the worried look on the face
of the fellow in the palm beach suit.
He's already gone three blocks behind his stop. The poor guy has only got a ten dollar bill in change
and he hasn't the nerve to hand it to the conny.

Hanging to a strap is a lady who has her arms full of bundles. She's got one eye on a fellow sitting down
in front of her and her other eye on a fellow who keeps bumping into her every time the car stops.

And the fellow who is sitting approetly in front of her has that look that indicates that he still has a slight touch of the gallantry of old,
when men used to stand up that women might sit. But his laziness is stronger than his "touch."

And before you get off the car, take
a slant at the conductor himself.
Nine different people have asked him to call their stops. The truth of the matter is, he's new on the line and doesn't know where the streets are.
No wonder his phizog registers disgust.

End of the line! All out.

THE BOOK OF ANN

Dad Starts Us On a Politics Club of
Our Own

Chrys and I spent a lot of time
discussing where to begin to reform
Ann. There were so many points of attack. But we talked too much about it and the plan got on our nerves. That is the big trouble in too much home life for women. They go around and under and through
and over their problems—and nothing comes of it. Neither poverty nor riches, a big establishment or a little one, makes any difference with the amount of conversation women waste
on home-making.

I must admit it was a grand relief
from the tenseness of the home situation to hear Chrys announce one night at dinner that she was going into politics!

Mother smiled her approval.
Mother was brought up to be a suffragist. She is a pioneer in the movement, and she never has had any spasms of enthusiasm about the cause. She has always been sure the vote would arrive.

I could see that our Chrys is going to be a grand acquisition to whichever political party she sides with.
She doesn't know which it will be,
she says. She is waiting for the candidates. Chrys has extraordinary executive ability, as she proved to Daddy's satisfaction when she worked in his office during the war.

"Picked out which office you're going to run for?" This banter from Bob. Before Chrys could reply, Daddy broke in with:

"If my daughter goes to Congress,

I hope she will make a better record
for her herself—and her sex—than Lady Astor is doing in Parliament.
Do you folks remember the reason
which was put up for sending a woman to the House of Commons? It was said that a woman would be sure to make over the divorce laws. They are atrocious in England."

Daddy didn't use the word "atrocious." He has his own choice expletives which he prefers to adjectives
and I guess they were appropriate in this case.

"What did Lady Astor do?" asked
Ann.

"When a motion for the relaxation
of England's unfair divorce laws
came to a vote in the House of Commons, Lady Astor made a telling speech which caused its defeat."

"Especially too bad, because she was born in this country," said mother. She assumed a good deal of responsibility for other wives' happiness, it seems to me.

"She said that divorce was easier
in America than in England and that it had proved a good thing for the country. She admitted that women ought to have the same rights as men under a divorce law and that the present unfairness ought to be changed, but said that she would postpone any change until the strain
of war had disappeared and the world
had settled down a bit."

"I liked one of her ideas, at any rate," said Chrys. "Divorce is a world-wide question. I've got another idea—for the millennium—I'd give a divorce to any wife who asked
for it!"

"With alimony, of course?" This from Ann.

"No!" said Chrys with crushing
briefness.

We were still for a painful minute,
then Daddy snatched us from the dilemma.

"What you girls need to learn first is how to ballot. I'll bet there isn't a lady present who knows how to mark a ballot. Do I see any hands up?"

Chrys' hand went up.

"You—of course!" was Daddy's pleased comment. "I tell you what I'll do, girls. I'll finance any little club, or league, or association you may start for teaching your enfranchised sex the rules of the game."

Daddy was in earnest and so we are going to have the loveliest little office, fixed like a voting booth, with a tea-room at one side, where we can handle all the important details any woman may want to know about voting.

Ann wishes to help. She will attend the phone in an outer office and see all visitors. She says she is going to wear overalls, too! The job
is really important and conspicuous.
I can't help wondering if Ann would care to work with us as a stenographer or filing clerk in the back office.

MILLER FIFTH AMONG AMER. ASSN. HITTERS; AVERAGE NOW IS .329

Dixon Man With Kansas City Keeps Slugging That Old Pill

Chicago, Aug. 7.—The three leading batters in the American League fattened up their averages during the past week, but "Babe" Ruth, the home-run champion, who is in fourth place, suffered a slump before Dick Kerr in the last game of the series between Chicago and New York. He was at bat five times but connected for only one hit. Tris Speaker, the Cleveland manager, who tops the batters gathered eleven hits in seven games and boosted his mark from .411 to .417, which is fifteen points better than that of George Sisler, the St. Louis star, who is the runner-up with an average of .402. Joe Jackson, the slugging outfielder of the Chicago White Sox, is third with a mark of .398, while Ruth is hitting .391. The averages are of players who have participated in fifty or more contests and include games of Wednesday.

Ruth continues to be the sensation of the league. This was evidenced again in the series just played in Chicago between the Yankees and the White Sox. For the four days a crowd officially estimated at 125,000 came out to witness the games with a hope of seeing the big southpaw slugger crack the ball out of the field. Only once during the series was Ruth able to "deliver" on his specialty. That was on the second day when he drove the ball out line into the right field bleachers for four bases. Claude Williams was pitching and it was the third homer Ruth had collected at his expense. This smash marked Ruth's thirty-eighth home run. Against Faber the following day he was unable to hit, because the game was close and he was ordered passed. In the opening game with Cicotte on the mound Ruth was helpless.

Rice, of Washington, is far out in front among the base stealers, showing the way with a total of 43 thefts. Other leading batters:
Rice, Washington, .365.
E. Collins, Chicago, .354.
Meusel, New York, .354.
Weaver, Chicago, .341.
Hendryx, Boston, .337.
Folsch, Chicago, .332.
Judge, Washington, .332.
Jamieson, Cleveland, .322.
Jacobson, St. Louis, .321.
Milan, Washington, .325.
Cobb, Detroit, .322.

National League.
Roger Hornsby, of St. Louis, continues to head the National League batters who have played in 50 or more games. The St. Louis star knocked out 13 hits in his last six games and boosted his average to .371. J. Smith, a teammate, who was the runner-up

NEW YORK'S SENSATIONAL WALTZ BALLAD

A Tune That Haunts the Heart

A new song that is now all the rage in New York and throughout the country, "When I'm Gone You'll Soon Forget." Despite the fact that it has only been published a few weeks this ballad is said to rival any sensational song hit published within recent years. Of course, there is the usual mystery in the ending of the story of this song, like the continuation of a love story in a magazine. But everybody seems to glory in the mystery. The following are a few lines of the chorus, clipped from a copy just received.

Although this song is written with a high note, a beautiful effect has been obtained by the simplicity of the arrangement. Orchestras and bands everywhere are playing this melody in a waltz. This number can be had in your Talking Machine and Piano.

NO TROUBLE AT ALL TO STOP SPEEDERS

Athens, Greece, has found a way to stop 'em all. It's a plank studded with nails! When a car appears to be speeding, an officer throws the plank in the road. If the machine is not going fast and the brakes work, it ought to stop before reaching the trap; otherwise, the motorist goes to the judge while the tires go to the repair shop.

TOO CLOSE TO CURB.
If you draw flush against the curb, you might find difficulty to turn the front wheel in starting. In such a case the best way to get out is to place the jack under the middle of the front axle, juck up the car a few inches and push it off away from the curb. This will not harm the auto and will send the wheel far enough from the curb to permit starting.

BEWARE SAND BLISTERS.
A small cut, especially in the tread of a rear tire, may permit the entrance of sand, which will work into a pocket between the tread and fabric. Such a sand blister soon wears through and makes a serious tire injury, the cure of which might be vulcanization. To forestall this, fill all small cuts with gum.

HIDE SPOTLIGHTS ENTERING CANADA

Since many more tourists are going to Canada, than ever before, it would be well to warn them of the dominion's anti-spotlight law. Not only are spotlights forbidden there, but if they are seen on cars crossing the border, they are confiscated.

TEST VALVE SPRINGS.

Valve springs should be tested occasionally to see if they are of full strength. If they are weak, they permit the pistons to draw burnt gases into the cylinders, thus creating an improper mixture. The average strength of a valve spring is thirty pounds.

USE NEW TIRES.

It is a good plan to carry a used tire as a spare and use the newly purchased one. For a new tire held as a spare is a temptation to the tire thief.

among the regulars last week went into a slump and dropped to fifth place with an average of .326, while Nicholson, of Pittsburgh, came along strong and now is runner-up to Hornsby with an average of .336. Roush, of Cincinnati, has pulled up into third place with a mark of .333, and Young, of New York, is holding fourth place with .327.

Hornsby is far in front in total bases with 220, acquired on 143 hits, which include thirty doubles, thirteen triples and seven circuit drives.

Cy Williams, of Philadelphia, bagged a brace of homers in the past week and now tops the circuit drive hitters with eleven. Robertson, of Chicago, is next with eight to his credit. Max Carey, of Pittsburgh, is setting a hot pace among the base stealers. He is showing the way with 36 thefts, while Roush, of Cincinnati, has 22 and Neale, another member of the world's champions, has pilfered 20.

Other leading batters:
Williams, Philadelphia, .323.
Konetchy, Brooklyn, .321.
Myers, Brooklyn, .320.
Hollocher, Chicago, .318.
Stock, St. Louis, .317.
Daubert, Cincinnati, .308.
Terry, Chicago, .305.
E. Smith, New York, .305.
Flack, Chicago, .304.
Groh, Cincinnati, .303.
Merkle, Chicago, .303.

American Ass'n.
Ben Tincup, the Indian with Louisville, took a bad tumble from his position among the batters of the American Association. From being runner-up to Grover Hartley, of Columbus, last week, the Indian has dropped to eighth place. Hartley also went into a slump. He cracked out only one hit in his last five games and lost 15 points off his averages. However, he still tops the list with mark of .357. Wilbur Good, of Kansas City, had a good week with the willow, and although he lost a few points from his mark of last week, his batting was superior to the other leaders, and as a result Good went into second place with an average of .340. The average

WATCH REAR AXLE.

The intense mechanical strain undergone by the rear axle calls for the most scrupulous watching to keep it in condition. This is the center of intense mechanical activity, carrying all the pushes and pulls and jolts and jars of the whole car. The car owner should therefore guard against any rear axle trouble. The safest way to have the axle examined by an expert as soon as slight trouble develops.

AUTO-TALK

Automobile drivers squeezing into a line of cars from the left have aroused the members of the Richland county (O.) automobile club to action against them. The club has ordered 250 signs reading, "The car at your right has the right of way," to be posted in the city of Mansfield. And the Mansfield city council has operated by including this system in the traffic ordinance.

Of the 2,500,000 miles of rural roads in the country, barely 12 per cent is classed as improved, and only about one-fourth of one per cent is hard surfaced, such as is required for satisfactory motor truck transportation. Eight hours' count of the vehicles passing through Columbus Circle, New York, showed a number of 39,210. This is the most congested spot in the country, and most likely the world.

England is seeking a substitute for gasoline in earnest. The newly formed Empire Motor Fuels Committee is releasing several thousand gallons of power alcohol weekly as a preliminary experiment toward an increased use of this fuel.

The car-stealing business is going good, according to the National Automobile Dealers' Association. In the 19 "index" cities of the country there was an increase of nearly 25 per cent of stolen automobiles in 1919, over those of 1918. Of the 31,345 stolen last year, nearly 75 per cent were recovered, while nearly 80 per cent of those stolen in 1918 were recovered. Cars stolen which were not recovered, in 1919, were valued at $5,658,330.

out over the alkali spots. After threshing is a fine time to spread straw as it can be done before stacks are frozen. There are good straw spreading machines on the market. Look one up and use it.

Sugar Prices

The Farm Bureau recently obtained a supply of sugar at $24.50 per 100 pounds. Wholesalers and speculators had held sugar off the market with almost daily increases in price until it was generally understood that sugar would go to 40 or 50 cents. When about 6 county farm bureaus in this part of the state secured a supply the prices dropped over night from 23-30 cents to 25-28 cents and could be had in unlimited quantities. Farmers had been without a supply of sugar so long for canning, harvest and threshing season that they were more than glad to secure an unlimited supply even tho the price is still about twice what it should be.

Grasshoppers

A number of farmers report that there are many young hoppers in fields. The season is favorable for damage by hoppers and if they are numerous it will pay to poison them. This should be done while they are young. W. P. Flint, State Entomologist recommends the following:

Poison Bait: 25 lbs. bran, 1 1/2 lbs.

white arsenic or 1 lb. Paris green, mixed dry. Then use 3 lbs. of green clover or green beans ground thru meat grinder or 6 oranges or lemons and 2 quarts of cheap strong molasses. Mix with water and use enough water to make a stiff bran mash. Sow poison bait over infested fields at the rate of 8 to 10 pounds per acre. Bait should be applied early in the morning. Care should be taken to not sow too thick near buildings where the chickens might pick it up. The poison bait will not harm any crop for feed. Call us for further information.

WORLD'S COSTLIEST SUBSTANCE NEW YORK BUYS SOME RADIUM

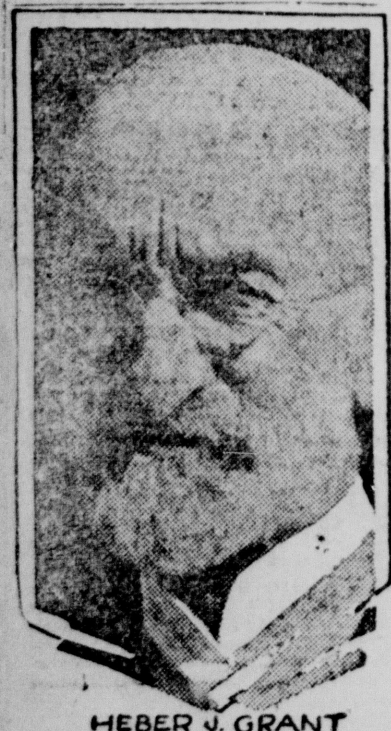

NEW YORK—This shotgun shell like tube that Miss Helen C. Campbell of the Radio Chemical Corporation holds, contains a tiny pellet about the size of a dose of quinine. It's worth $30,000. You guessed it—radium! It's the world's most precious substance. The four tubes shown hold one gram—about 1-30th of an ounce—and are worth $120,000. New York state has bought two and one-quarter grams (the largest shipment ever made) to use in the fight against cancer and skin diseases. The tubes are of lead and the radium contained in a tiny silver capsule. The lead keeps part of the rays of radium from escaping. They make bad burns.

"MARKED" MAN

FLYING TO THE SOUTH POLE

ON WITH THE DANCE!

NEW YORK—College girls would do well to adopt being dance hostess as a profession. So says Miss Hazel Allen, dance hostess at the summer roof garden of the Hotel McAlpin. "It's extremely pleasant work," says Miss Allen, "and it requires plenty of ingenuity and brain power."

STILL HOPE FOR WOMEN

DR. SERGE VORONOFF
N. E. A. Staff Special

NEW YORK—Women, it appears, are just as puzzling to Dr. Serge Voronoff as they are to an ordinary man. The famous Paris surgeon who grafts rejuvenating monkey glands in to men and makes them feel young and frisky again, says he is loath to try any monkey business on women. "As I have explained in my book," he said, "the danger to women would be too great to try experiments with them. But I hope to find a safe way to offer them advantages in the way of rejuvenation."

"Think what it would mean to women—women of sixty who can make their faces the faces of twenty—if their bodies likewise could be made youthful!"

Dr. Voronoff is now in New York with his wife, former American woman, daughter of the late Jabez Bostwick. He hopes, he said, to perform a rejuvenating operation while in America, but there are no monkeys of the proper species.

WASHINGTON—Prof. W. F. Shepherd has a pet chimpanzee who can thread a needle as well as any man—awkwardly, but eventually. Shepherd's pet can also sew buttons on his uniform.

WHAT IS "CAMERA FACE?" NOTED DIRECTOR TELLS

"I SHOT MY BROTHER"

Son's Confession of Accident Clears Mother

REGINALD MESSENGER

BY MILTON BRONNER

European Manager N. E. A.

LONDON—"Mother didn't do it! Philip didn't do it! I shot my brother. It was an accident."

The piping, quivering voice of 17-year-old Reginald Messenger broke the stillness of Hampstead court—and thus ended a murder trial.

Seventeen-year-old Fred Messenger, a cripple, was found shot through the head, in the kitchen of his home. His mother, Fannie Edith Messenger, and a brother, Philip, were charged with the murder.

As the trial started Reginald confessed, explaining that he had taken down a gun to clean it and it accidentally went off. He said he was too scared to tell about it before.

JUMPS FROM $624 TO $70,000

FRANCES GUIHAN

NEW YORK—From office girl at $12 a week to scenario writer at $70,000 a year—a little less than the president's salary—in a few years' time is the record of Frances Guihan, one of the "big four" of the movie writers. She was a St. Louis girl and worked in the office of a St. Louis company. She tried her luck at writing "script," and had a large number of manuscripts rejected at first. "There's nothing in this inspiration idea," says Miss Guihan. "Work is the recipe for success."

FINE, SAYS "COUNTRY COUSINS"

ONEIDA, N. Y.—The "country cousins" who attend the community schools in the counties surrounding Oneida are strong for the "jyo-ride" they get every morning and every afternoon. The tots ride to and from school in community auto buses, and the rides cost them nothing. It's part of the popular plan that has done away with the "little red schoolhouse" and given farmer folks the big community schools.

Anarchist, Known Internationally, is Arrested in Chicago

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Police today took up their search for other anarchists thought to be identified with Alexander Jaanuika, said to be an international known anarchist sought by the allied governments for five years, and who was arrested here yesterday. Inspection of papers found in Jaanuika's office at the L. W. W., headquarters here brought to light a secret propaganda code.

Jaanuika said he believed no body should work more than two hours a day; that every working man should own an automobile in which to ride to and from work with a chauffeur; and that each working man should have a vacation each summer of two months to spend at some seaside resort.

"Everything's wrong in the United States; government, political and social systems, everything," he said.

Officials said he is one of the leaders in the internationale or world soviet movement.

Ask Sherman Not to Go to Lanark

Lanark, Ill. — The following letter will explain itself and was addressed to the vice-president of the Carroll County Old Settlers' association, C. M. Feezer:

"Lanark, Ill., Aug. 3, 1920.

"At a meeting of the citizens of Lanark it was voted that for the best interests of all concerned, and in view of the fact that the American Legion of Carroll county are opposed to Hon. L. Y. Sherman as speaker of the day on old settlers' day, August 19, that he be recalled and that his engagement for this occasion be cancelled. I am indeed sorry that such is the case, but we hope that everything will come out all right in the end. Will you kindly inform Mr. Sherman?"

What will now be done is a question. Another speaker will have to be provided on short notice, and what success can be met with in so doing is only a guess. An effort will at once be made by the officials of the association to procure a speaker.

SALTS IN HOT WATER CLEARS PIMPLY SKIN

Says we must make kidneys clean the blood and pimples disappear.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

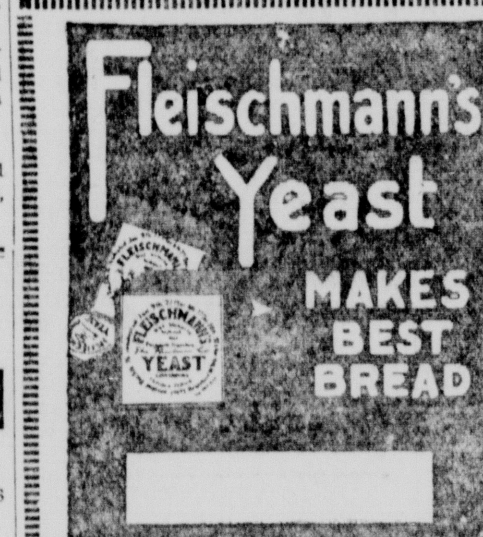

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.
